IMMIGRATION HISTORY:

22. Date of Last Arrival in USA:

23. I-94 Number -

a. If your last entry occurred after 2013, look at your Arrival/Departure Record online, by googling “obtain I-94 online” and clicking on “get most recent I-94”. You will need to have access to your passport to be able to look at your record online.

b. If your last entry into USA occurred more than 11 years ago, you should have a paper copy of your I-94 that was issued to you when you arrived at the port of entry in USA.

○ Was your passport stamped upon your entry and if so, what notations does the stamp contain for your last entry:

24. State the date your authorized stay (this is different from your visa, and it’s stated on your I-94, or on the stamp on the passport) expires on:

25. Place of last entry into US (city and state):

26. In what status did you last enter (visitor, student, exchange, ESTA, VWP, temporary worker, without inspection, Canadian entry):

27. Were you inspected by a US immigration officer:

28. Describe the conversation between you and the US CBP immigration officer at the port of entry:

a. What questions did the CBP officer ask you?

b. What were your exact answers?

29. Did you go to a secondary inspection at the port of entry, and if yes, describe in detail what was said during the secondary inspection:
